The Goal This Month

WHAT WE NEED:
$29,500
250 new subscriptions
1,451 renewals

YOUR MONEY

After 2½ Marathon days, as this goes to press, we have raised $41,000 in pledges and are confident that by the time you read this all $175,000 will have been pledged and much of it realized by us in cash.

The $175,000 is not a padded figure. We need all the money. So please if you pledged support, honor your committment by sending us your check.

Our sincere thanks to all of you who have helped us during the marathon. You have given us the financial means and psychic energy to continue the experiment of listener-sponsored broadcasting in New York City.

WHAT'S GOING ON

Larry the J will be filing by-monthly programs at the health spa at VPRO in Holland where he's taking the waters for the summer. Called "Getting In Dutch," the programs will be broadcast on two Fridays (6-4, 18) at 9 P.M. and rebroadcast on the following Mondays at 8:45 A.M. We hope they will be in English.

We've made some new musical arrangements (scheduling; the compositions are uncontrollable) which will mean that the rebroadcast of the "War Summary" will be at 9 A.M. instead of 9:30. The new music schedule will also move most of the early evening commentaries up to 5 P.M. and allow about 45 minutes for music between them and the 6:30 News. If you have opinions about these arrangements, please let us know.

We will be starting a new, once-a-month commentary with the Puerto Rican Independence League (Sunday the 27th, 7 P.M., rebroadcast Tuesday the 29th, 2:30 P.M.). Bob Kuttner, now in our Washington Bureau, will be filing special reports "From the Seat of Power," on two Wednesdays at 7:15 P.M., moving "Black Perspective on the Congress" with Rep. Ron Dellums to two Sundays at 7 P.M.

Finally, we are going to try to convince Larry's replacements to sign on at 6:30 A.M. and to lead everyone in push-ups and toe-touching. If you don't do the exercises, you can't listen until 7:30.

12 45 MUSIC OF NICHOLAS SLONIMSKY The Russian-born pianist, composer, conductor, musicologist, and lexicographer was one of the earliest champions of Ives, Varese, Ruggles, et al. His own music, written in "consonant counterpoint in mutually exclusive diatonic and pentatonic systems" is so far from being intellectual, abstruse or avant-garde (as one would expect) that it suffers from its own simplicity and "style-lessness". Nevertheless it has wit and humor as well as historical interest. Here are the Studies in Black and White, Suite for Cello and Piano, Variations on a Brizilian Tune, Gravestones of Hancock, N.H. (I), and other songs performed by the composer with Nancy Bramlage, soprano, and Jerome Kessler, cello.
